"A home away from home for families who visit their loved ones in prison"

Volume VI, Number I

February, 2010

Playroom Renovations

Thanks to a grant from the RYE Foundation, The Matthew 25 Center has been able to do some renovations to the children's playroom which make the room more usable, safe and 'kid friendly.' In an effort to have as safe a facility as possible for children, we invited the Pender County Partnership for Children to do a safety audit of the Center. One thing that they noted was that the shelves in the playroom were not a type that is safe around children who might climb to get something out of reach.

We already had a lack of storage space for toys that children could easily reach, so we decided to replace the shelves and odd bookcases with cabinets. Pender Correctional Institution allowed an inmate to build a beautiful set of cabinets which are sturdy, safe and which put the toys in easy reach of children.

The new cabinets really dress up the room and make it more inviting. The kids love it! We do too!

Children's Christmas Party

Families in Crisis, a local ministry to inmate families, hosted a Christmas Party for inmate children at New Hanover Correctional Center on Dec. 18, 2009 and at Pender Correctional Institution on Dec. 19, 2009.

They asked The Matthew 25 Center to partner with them in this endeavor by providing the use of the Center as a base of activities to prepare the food and to gather and sort the toys that were donated for the children. The Center was a beehive of activity the week before the events! Some nights volunteers worked until 2:00 a.m.!

Toys to Be Given to Inmate Children

A total of 129 children from 65 inmate families participated in the event. Each child received a Christmas gift which was provided by Families in Crisis. In addition, the families enjoyed a great Christmas dinner, but the greatest gift of all was getting to spend quality time together as a family. Plans are already under way to repeat the event next year. Plan now to be a part of this effort!

One Day with God Camp

The One Day with God Camp is coming soon! The camp is scheduled for April 16-17, 2010. The Matthew 25 Center partners with Forgiven Ministry to sponsor this very important event. Scottie Barnes, Forgiven Ministry Director, estimates that we will need 150 volunteers to staff the event and approximately $6,000.00 in donations. For more information on how to volunteer or donate, go to the Forgiven Ministry website (www.forgivenministry.org) or call The Matthew 25 Center (910-259-7133). Application deadline for the camp is March 15, 2010.
